From there, you can follow the prompts to register. You and your spouse/partner (if applicable) will need your employee ID number to get started. To find your employee ID number, log into PRISM. Then click Employee Self-Service > Employment > Job Profile.

Enter your birthdate as MMDDYYYY and your name exactly as it appears in the Einstein system (Thomas vs. Tom, for example).

Note – your username and password will be something you choose that is unique and is NOT your current Einstein credentials.

Welcome to Einstein's new LiveWell program

Our new partnership with RedBrick Health makes it easier to live your best life.

- Healthy Steps annual physical with biometrics and preventive screenings
 - The deadline moved from November 30, 2018, to May 31, 2019. Plan members have an extra 6 months to complete Healthy Steps!
 - Confirm participation directly in this portal to complete the steps (there are no more faxed forms)
 - To complete your biometric screening, you need to get the following: height, weight, blood pressure, total cholesterol, HDL, LDL, HBA1C or glucose
- Healthy Activities: Choose from a variety of healthy activities to complete and earn entries into prize drawings. All benefits-eligible employees and covered spouses can participate.

SEE ACTIVITIES AND CHECK STATUS FAQ

You'll see three tabs – Home, Topics and Rewards. Topics allows you to sort activities based on interest and condition. Rewards will list all rewardable activities and provide your path to confirm plan member activity in the Healthy Steps program.

Complete your Healthy Steps

Plan members: Take smart steps for your health. Get an annual physical, biometric screening, and necessary preventive screenings. By participating, you avoid paying an additional $40 per pay for your Einstein health plan.

To complete your biometric screening, you need to get the following: height, weight, blood pressure, total cholesterol, HDL, LDL, HBA1C or glucose.

Healthy Steps: Required coaching calls

Based on your historical biometric results, you may be required to complete three calls with a RedBrick health coach. Those who are required to complete coaching will be notified between January 1 and January 18, 2019. Coaching calls completed prior to being notified will count toward the requirement.

Please review the honor code

In an effort to simplify the process, LiveWell is no longer doing faxed forms to verify your Healthy Steps participation. Instead, we are counting on you to verify your participation on this site and we trust you to be honest. You committed to the honor code when you registered for RedBrick and you'll be asked to reconfirm every three months. Falsification of information can result in termination of job.
